Back Story

You're a grad student struggling to pay off your debt, and in a desperate effort to keep the lights on, you decide to spend as little as possible on food till the end of the week. How exactly? Oh, just by going out on dates with rich men who would be more than happy to cover the check. ~~But these~~ Except this date isn't your ordinary fella. No, these are some of the most outlandish playboys out there. And the only way to get what you want is by matching their level of weirdness. So throw on a nice outfit, fake a semi-convincing smile, and get ready to redefine "freaky" romance.
